

Medium Term Planning

Year 6

Summer 2025 Second Half Term

English	Mathematics
The children will have the opportunity to write a	The children will be working on 'money matters' discussion text with reasons for and against	maths. They will be focusing on a project that will deforestation of the Amazon Rainforest. Following this	cover annual salaries, hourly rates, bills, mortgages, they will create a non-chronological report where they	and how to manage owning your own home.
will research their chosen subject and will present their	We will continue our daily arithmetic lessons and findings in the form of a report which they can present to	begin to look at transitional maths into high school. their classmates. We will be consolidating all the work previously studied in our grammar lessons.
Art & Design	Computing
In art lessons, we will be doing monochromatic arts	As well as completing our digital art project from last based around detailed sketching. The pupils will learn	term, the pupils will be exploring advances in new about proportions and shape to sketch a detailed eye,	technology and the impact (both positive and lips and nose in preparation for drawing a complete	negative) this has on society. We will research and facial portrait.	explore how technology may change in the future.
Design & Technology	Geography
The focus for our DT fortnight will be Playgrounds . We	We have completed all the geography units for this will be researching the different types of playgrounds	academic year. Last half term we focussed on from around the world and looking at how we can	fieldwork skills which fed into our trip to High Borrans.
design, plan, and build our own replica playgrounds using	The children also learnt about the different biomes of a wide range of methods to stiffen, strengthen and	the world and the features, similarities and reinforce the different structures.	differences of these areas.
History	Music
The pupils will be focusing on World War Two and in	We will be learning songs for our leaver's assembly. particular the Battle of Britain. Throughout this topic, we we	We will also be learning to sign a song as well as learn about how and why the war started and the efforts of	playing some musical instruments for the end of year the Allied Forces to stop the Nazi regime. The pupils will	event.
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways	event.
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history.
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE)	Physical Education (PE)
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops	Physical Education (PE) The children will attend a residential at High Borrans
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings	Physical Education (PE) The children will attend a residential at High Borrans in The Lake District. In lessons, the children will be
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing	Physical Education (PE) The children will attend a residential at High Borrans in The Lake District. In lessons, the children will be developing their athletics skills in preparation for
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health &amp; Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving	Physical Education (PE) The children will attend a residential at High Borrans in The Lake District. In lessons, the children will be developing their athletics skills in preparation for sports day. We also have cricket coaches to work with
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health &amp; Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School.	Physical Education (PE) The children will attend a residential at High Borrans in The Lake District. In lessons, the children will be developing their athletics skills in preparation for sports day. We also have cricket coaches to work with the pupils one lesson per week.
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE)	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.Science
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening their
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the world today. We will investigate and discuss different	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening theirscience skills by completing a range of various
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the world today. We will investigate and discuss different world views of religion and consider the importance of	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening theirscience skills by completing a range of variousinvestigations. This be provide opportunities to
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the world today. We will investigate and discuss different world views of religion and consider the importance of religious freedom and how religion can make better	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening theirscience skills by completing a range of variousinvestigations. This be provide opportunities toexplore a number of concepts scientifically including
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the world today. We will investigate and discuss different world views of religion and consider the importance of religious freedom and how religion can make better people in the future.	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening theirscience skills by completing a range of variousinvestigations. This be provide opportunities toexplore a number of concepts scientifically includingUV lessons and safety of sunglasses.
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the world today. We will investigate and discuss different world views of religion and consider the importance of religious freedom and how religion can make better people in the future. In KS2 we learn French in our Modern	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening theirscience skills by completing a range of variousinvestigations. This be provide opportunities toexplore a number of concepts scientifically includingUV lessons and safety of sunglasses.Foreign Languages Curriculum (MFL)
research facts and produce the findings in a number of ways about the crucial part of British history. Personal Social Health & Economic education (PSHE) The pupils will be learning about how a baby develops from conception. We will be looking how feelings develop when becoming a teenager as well as discussing our feelings around leaving Primary School and moving on to High School. Religious Education (RE) This unit of work will explore the place religion has in the world today. We will investigate and discuss different world views of religion and consider the importance of religious freedom and how religion can make better people in the future.	Physical Education (PE)The children will attend a residential at High Borransin The Lake District. In lessons, the children will bedeveloping their athletics skills in preparation forsports day. We also have cricket coaches to work withthe pupils one lesson per week.ScienceThis half term, the pupils will be strengthening theirscience skills by completing a range of variousinvestigations. This be provide opportunities toexplore a number of concepts scientifically includingUV lessons and safety of sunglasses.Foreign Languages Curriculum (MFL)ng colours, numbers, greetings and school life. We will